

District Distribution Kernel

- Prior to each Distribution, visit the distribution site to become familiar with the layout.
- Recruit volunteers to help at the distribution sites.
- Communicate and confirm with units their distribution times and locations
- Insure that all units receive the correct order and sign for product received at the distribution sites
- Help manage unit inventory and coordinate with units that need more product or units that have too much product.

